DEDICATION TO

“MA”

MRS. BARBARA GANLEY

Honesty rare
as a man
without self-pity,
Kindness as large
and plain as a prairie wind.

Jane -
What a P.E.
class! I have a nice runner. Keep your delightful personality.
Barbara "Ma" Ganley

IN

APPRECIATION OF . . .

Sara, ~ is my favorite name
and you are one of my favorite people. Hope to see you in class next year.

David Coen

Mr. Thompson

the time and effort as well as the genuine concern given to the class of 1973, we here give our thanks to our class advisors.

Mr. Coen

Mrs. Sikes

*Instead of anger
let me feel compassion.*

*Instead of rage
let me show concern.*

Instead of hate let me seek change.

*For, if,
to a warring, wandering world
each of us will bring*

*compassion
concern
change,*

Then perhaps there will be love.

Parental Guidance suggested.

You think it'll fit?

*Always remember we have shared, there is a link,
the presence of a certain time, place, song, person.*

Are you giving me?!

Well . . . all Greeks aren't Gods.

Be a light unto yourself.

I found so much beauty in people, ones that were so far are now so near.

FRESHMEN

We are introduced to Winnie the Pooh and some bees, and the stories begin. To show that we had pride and spirit as a class unity, we ventured into the class jacket bonanza. Because of this matter, we found honey to create a very sticky situation. But this little mishap didn't hinder us that much because we licked our paws and started again. Our folk talent show displayed our class integrity, and we survived through the year although our great orange basketball from the pep rally rolled over Mr. Hayes' car.

SOPHOMORES

Graduating up to the piglet status, as sophomores, we organize to order rings, further exemplifying our unity. And, the bees begin to swarm as phone calls for bomb scares arrive at the school. And bathing in a mud puddle we proclaim our pep rally victory.

JUNIOR

Still jolly piglets, we find ourselves completely surrounded by water. Winnie the Pooh splashed college and exams into our faces and the curious activities of heffalumps and woozles further draws us into the swamp. But the Junior Prom displays implicit beauty of our swamp maidens, and we uncurled our tails for the future.

SENIOR

We have further adventures together in our crystal snow ball and over-night trip. Then — with our tails uncurled and plans forming, Christopher Robin throws a party. Winnie the Pooh's sticky hands pat us on the back as we turn to say good-bye to all that we leave behind.

One season following another Laden with happiness and tears.*

*Anatevka, Anatevka
Underfed, overworked Anatevka
Where else could Sabbath be so sweet?*

*Anatevka, Anatevka
Intimate, obstinate Anatevka
Where I know everyone I meet.*

*Soon I'll be a stranger in a strange new place
Searching for an old familiar face
From Anatevka.*

*I belong in Anatevka
Tumbledown, sorkaday Anatevka
Dear little village, little town of mine.*

(Special thanks to all those who did more than their share.)

It was not a perfect year.
But has there ever been a perfect year?
Has there ever been a year
When all the love and health and fame
We wished for one another
Ever came to pass?

Yet, despite the disappointments
Of these, our complex lives,
We learn to make do
make better
make believe
That better days will come.

And if we continue to believe
Who is to say
The perfect year
Will not yet be here?
